Christmas Wishes 2005

New Year Greeting 2006

The Chan family would extend a very warm greeting to you all in this Christmas season as we celebrate the Christmas time for many reasons: a time for family reunion; an opportunity for thanks giving; gathering for friends; a holiday break for relaxation or a reflection of achievements and challenges. Let's remember the most important reason is to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ who came to the earth as Son of God for our salvation.

Florence has enjoyed a fruitful year. She is active in helping the church and made substantial personal and spiritual progress. She is also a very loving housewife who looks after the family well in all aspects.

Michael has just finished grade 11. He is turning to 17 in next Jan and is entering grade 12 next year. This will be his final year in high school. The upcoming year will see a lot challenges for him.

Kenneth is still working with Suncorp. It has been 11 years, the longest serving job in his career. Thanks the Lord that his health is still well. After his India Mission Trip last year, he is now thinking of his long-term career goal. As the provider of the family, pray that the Lord will give him wisdom.

As the New Year is approaching, we are hoping that 2006 will be another year of joy, excitement, advancement, and even when facing difficulties, the endurance to walk through. And we are also hoping that we can share all these with the others.

Best wishes for a merry Christmas 2005 and a happy new year 2006.

Kenneth, Florence & Michael
